Dear [Code A]

Further to my email below, might I ask you to be flexible about the date of the PPC meeting? I will need to read 12 separate bundles before drafting 12 separate responses to the PPC. Even if we are given 28 days, that might be quite hard to fit in. It would be in the Council's interest, as well as the Registrants if I have the chance to make a full response in all cases. Therefore, it would be helpful if you list the PPC on a date well after the letters to Registrants, or refrain from listing it until everything is ready.

I would be very grateful if you would provide the answers to the questions in my email below by Monday. I am in the process of writing to the 12 Registrants now. It would speed things up no end if I knew for sure, in each case, who referred them on what date in respect of which patient - no other detail needed for now.

If you would like to discuss this, please do not hesitate to ring, on my mobile,

[Code A]

Many thanks

Chris

Dear [Code A]

Thank you again for your letter of 19th January.

I will be representing all the nurses named in your letter, except for Shirley Hallman. Ms Hallman will be represented by another RCN solicitor, to be arranged. I will let you and Code A know who will be representing her, as soon as I know myself.

I have arranged to see all the other nurses next month, and will then get back to you as to the information requested on pages 4 and 5 of your letter.

I would be very grateful if you would clarify some of the information in your letter, by answering the questions below:

You state that Hampshire Constabulary referred Philip Beed, Margaret Couchman and Christine Joice to the UKCC in September 2000, with allegations relating to their care of Mrs Richards. These referrals were considered by the PPC in September 2001, and the cases were all closed.

- Was Philip Beed subsequently referred to the UKCC or NMC by anybody else?
- If so, on what date or dates?
- Who made the referral(s)?
- What were the allegations against him?
- If there was more than one subsequent referral, who made what allegation when?
- Was Margaret Couchman subsequently referred to the UKCC or NMC by anybody else?
- If so, on what date or dates?
- Who made the referral(s)?
- What were the allegations against her?
- If there was more than one subsequent referral, who made what allegation when?
- Was Christine Joice subsequently referred to the UKCC or NMC by anybody else?
- If so, on what date or dates?
- Who made the referral(s)?
- What were the allegations against her?
- If there was more than one subsequent referral, who made what allegation when?

You have listed Janet Neville, Freda Shaw, Elizabeth Bell, Gillian Hamblin and Deborah Barker among the old rules cases. In each of these cases, please would you let me know:

- What date was the referral made?
- Who made the referral?
- What were the allegations?
- If there was more than one referral, who made what allegation when?

I understand, of course, that you may not be in a position to particularise the allegations at this time. However, if you can simply give a broad idea of what the allegations are and, in particular, to which patient they relate, it would be very helpful.

Many thanks Code A

Chris Green
