Thanks

Good morning, [Code A]

The PPC sat this week to consider case(s) relating to Gosport War Memorial Hospital.

On this occasion, because of the volume of available documentation for it to read, a bundle of papers was sent to the committee and legal assessor in advance of the hearing. Ian authorised additional reading time if the attendees wanted to prepare in advance. It became obvious throughout the last two days that they had all done so, thus ensuring that consideration of the case was concluded.

I am passing you the claim forms that I received from the committee members, together with a print out of this email. The legal assessor's will follow.

The attendees were as follows:
