Dear Ian

Thank you for responding so promptly to my correspondence.

Please note that the NMC has already received a referral regarding this matter, and is currently looking into the same. Once full identification of the nurses responsible has been established, I then hope to progress the matter before a panel. Unfortunately this cannot be done, until such time.

In this regard as you have confirmed that you do not wish to formally make a complaint, I shall proceed to close your matter and will progress with the other referral that has been received.

Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regards

I am not making a complaint per se, as I am not connected with the situation myself. I am merely asking for confirmation that the NMC will correctly handle the allegations made by those who WERE involved that nurses LIED UNDER OATH IN COURT.

As a disinterested observer, I would consider that being found guilty, either in court or in an NMC investigation, of committing perjury in respect to actions taken in the course of one's employment as a nurse should be cause for instant and permanent withdrawal of any and all registrations and permissions required to work as a nurse.

As a result, the "interested party" on your side is not any individual nurse, but the NMC itself.
