3	11144	[Redacted]	[Redacted]		01/11/2001		Upon commencement of NMC proceedings the case has been delayed twice by applications for Judicial Review made by Mary O'Rourke on behalf of the registrants. Both have been unsuccessful. Hearing is now well underway but is now the longest we have ever held - in part due to delays caused by the other side (who then threaten us with further JRs over the time the case is taking. Reconvening the panel is now extremely difficuly as one member has changed employment and has severely limited availability. Resumes in March.	High political profile. Dr V Cable MP heavily engaged as local constituency MP. IT has has 1-1 meetings to keep him advised but he refers to the matter - and the NMC specifically - as 'shameful' in his recent autobiography. Previous failed GMC proceedings involved Dr Chai Patel, a high profile labour party donor involved in the 'cash for peerages' scandal of 2006 who headed the company which owned Lynde House at the time of the allegations. Very vociferous relatives group of very well educated Richmond and Twickenham residents including Erin Pizzey, founder of Women's Refuges
