Dear Mrs Barney

I understand from my staff that you have contacted them regarding my letter to you of 7 April 2009.

As I have stated in my earlier letter, I do not have any evidence before me to give me reasonable cause to suspect that your parents' deaths were not due to natural causes. Therefore, I have no grounds for investigating them further or holding Inquests into them.

Of course, if you have any further evidence regarding the deaths that you have not previously provided to the police, you should let them have it to look at. If it transpires that they then have suspicions regarding the deaths, the police will inform me and I will consider the situation.

Yours sincerely
