I'll pass your email outlining the problem you have with an eight week Inquest to Mr Bradley, who is dealing with the Inquests.

Val,

I have spoken to Helen Williams and both the Listing officers at Portsmouth, if the inquest is to last for up to 8 weeks we have a problem. As we thought the inquest was only 6 weeks we have now fully listed cases for the last two weeks (week 7 & 8), so we have no space at this court for the last two weeks of the inquest.

I haven't got an email from Helen Williams dated 2 September. I might have deleted it as a housekeeping exercise. However I can confirm that a court room for the Inquests will be required from Wednesday, 18.03.09, but Mr Bradley, the Coroner holding the Inquests, now anticipates that they will last for up to eight weeks rather than the original estimate of six weeks. A Jury Retiring Room will be required.
