Dear Mr Bradley

Thank you for your helpful email.

I had noticed that the names are spelled in different ways in different documents relating to the deaths in question, and thought it might be helpful to you to get the correct versions before sending out the advance disclosures.

Nurse TUBBRITT (rather than TURBITT)
 Nurse TURNBULL (rather than TURNBALL)
 Sister JOINES (rather than JONES)
 Dr Ian REID (rather than READ)

Nurse Sylvia GIFFIN was on the list of live witnesses you mentioned in your notes of the pre-inquest meeting which took place on 14 August 2008.

If I can be of any further help, perhaps in supplying current addresses for example, please do not hesitate to ask.

Yours sincerely

Dear Ms Deeks,

Thank you for the e-mails which have been forwarded to me by Portsmouth

The request you have had is probably as a result of the advance disclosure I have sent to the police for approval before it goes out to the interested persons and asked that they should ensure all hospital notes are available at the Inquests.

Thank you for pointing out that Nurse Giffin has died which will avoid any embarrassment.

It would be helpful if you could let me have details of spelling mistakes before I send out the AD

As a matter of interest I was not anticipating calling Sylvia Giffin so far as I can recall.

Thanks for your help.
