Dear Mr Jenkins,

Thank you for that. I think circulation would be helpful although as to your question 3 I would propose warning the jury against any prejudice rather than putting the point as you do

There will be numerous matters to address tomorrow and if I overlook any of your points please do remind me.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Bradley
HM Coroner

Dear Mr Bradley,

I enclose a document in a file entitled "Submissions on behalf of Dr Barton", although the document itself is headed "Issues to be raised...". You will see that it doesn't really contain any submissions, but a couple of suggestions that are intended to assist.

I have sent a copy of the document to the barrister instructed in the cases of Devine, Packman, Gregory and Cunningham. He is Thomas Leeper, of Outer Temple Chambers (as I am).

As I indicate in the document I shall bring copies for the other interested parties if you consider it suitable for circulation.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Jenkins
