Dear Mr White,

Re: Gladys RICHARDS, deceased
Inquest commencing: 9th April 2013

Thank you for your letter dated 9th May 2013 enclosing a cheque for £10.00.

I am pleased to enclose a copy of the recording of the Inquest into the death of the above named deceased.

Please note that the copy CDs cannot be used to provide an official transcript for legal purposes. If you require an official transcript, please apply to the Coroner who will authorise transcription of the original recordings. The official transcript is available to interested parties for a fee, which will vary according to the length of the Inquest.

I also need to bring to your attention that these CDs are data CDs so you might have to listen to them on a computer as they might not work on a normal CD player.

I have been made aware that until recently the quality of the recordings is quite poor. I apologise for this issue caused by the technology.

If I can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr White,

Re: Gladys Mabel RICHARDS, deceased

I refer to your request for the copy of the recording of the Inquest into the death of the above named deceased. The Inquest was recorded onto 1 disc.

The Coroner charges a fee of £10.00 per copy CD to cover the costs of production and dispatch. Your payment of £10.00 should be made out to "H.M. Coroner" and sent to the above address in due course.

Please note that the copy CDs cannot be used to provide an official transcript for legal purposes. If you require an official transcript, please apply to the Coroner who will authorise transcription of the original recordings. The official transcript is available to interested parties for a fee, which will vary according to the length of the Inquest.

I also need to bring to your attention that this CD is a data CD so you might have to listen to it on a computer as it might not work on a normal CD player.

I have been made aware that until recently the quality of the recordings is quite poor. I apologise for this issue caused by the technology.

Your CD recording will be dispatched on receipt of your payment.

Yours sincerely,

John,

Dear ~~Mr White,~~

Inquest - Gladys Mabel Richards:

I refer to your letter dated 26th April 2013.

My office can supply a CD recording of the Inquest and I enclose a copy of our standard letter explaining how it can be obtained.

The recordings I have of pre-Inquest meetings are not Inquest documents for the purposes of the Coroners Rules. The meetings were simply recorded as an aide memoire for myself and I am not able to supply copies.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sirs David

Our Client: Mrs Gladys Mabel Richards (Deceased) - Inquest

We write further to the inquest hearing which took place at the beginning of April 2013.

Firstly, we would like to thank the Coroner for undertaking his detailed enquiry and his time, commitment and patience in this matter.

Mrs Mackenzie has asked if we can request CD-ROMs of the recording of the entire inquest hearing. Please can you indicate the cost and if you can provide these. In addition, she has also asked for CDs of the pre-inquest hearings and whether those would be available also.

We would be grateful for the above information and look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Best wishes.

Yours faithfully
