Just got back from a gruesome morning at Guys - please do not worry I quite understand re. expenses - may I stay in a hotel for the night before the first morning so there is not such a rush in the morning. The reason I copy e mail to you is that most times I do not get the information from JW. Just have to hope he has passed on my queries to my barrister and I never know whether he has passed them on to you so I am left in limbo. I still have not had confirmation of whether the commencement is the 8th. or 9th April or the actual finishing date - as of yesterday JW did not know either !! There is a breakdown in communication somewhere and I do not think it is from my end. Best wishes. Gillian M Mackenzie.

Dear Mrs Mackenzie,
 Once you have given your evidence, you cease to be a witness and I'm not authorised to pay anything for your attendance expenses. After that, it is the responsibility of your legal representatives to put questions on your behalf. Because as you are to be legally represented you will be unable to put them yourself. Nor will you be able to address me direct.

As regards the other matters you mention, for the reasons I have stressed to you and your solicitor on many occasions, I'm afraid I am not prepared to enter into parallel correspondence with yourself on subjects which are properly Mr White's province.

Mr White is aware that the Inquest is scheduled for 2 weeks commencing 9 April, Mrs Mackenzie.

In the event that he hasn't received an Inquest timetable for the days when each witness will be giving evidence, I've asked Mrs John of my office to send him another copy.

Appreciate your swift reply - when I have confirmation of the exact dates I will book a hotel for the night before rather than the Centre if you agree – the disabled centre is very basic at £3.50 a night so I will not need an overdraft for the whole fortnight and it will avoid the hassle of bus journeys and ferry crossings etc. for the first morning. I hope I am eventually going to receive the answers to my other queries re. dates, statements, Haslar papers and witnesses. Total dismissal of my queries causes sheer frustration not distress and I have more than enough pressure at the moment with the treatment at Guy's hospital for the next four /five appointments .

Perhaps there should be a re-drafting of the stock letter which is sent out by [Code A] - I cannot question evidence given in Court or ask for clarification if the Inquest takes longer than one day as per the paragraph in her letter.

No doubt you are as "fed up " for want of another expression ,with this situation as I am . In addition I have been through this total dismissal before with the Hampshire Police ignoring queries , ignoring letters etc. Believe me the fact that the PCA and IPCC upheld all my complaints for investigative failures and inappropriate comments does not appease my fury at the way this case has been handled from the beginning.
