Hello John,

Thank you for your letter of 11 February.

I have met Mrs Bermingham and I would have no objection whatsoever to her asking questions on behalf of her mother and herself.

D.

Dear Sirs

David

Our Client: Mrs Gladys Mabel Richards (deceased)

We write having been contacted by Mrs Leslie O'Brien, who is a witness. Unfortunately we are unable to act for her because of a conflict with her sister, Mrs Gillian McKenzie.

Mrs O'Brien is now in her mid 70s. She has asked whether it would be possible for her daughter, Peta Bermingham to ask questions on her behalf of other witnesses at the hearing. There is no problem with Mrs O'Brien giving evidence, however she would find questioning the witnesses an ordeal. She is otherwise unrepresented and it would assist her greatly to have leave for this.

We would be grateful if the Coroner could consider this request and let us know his view as soon as possible.

Many thanks.

Yours faithfully
