Dear Sirs

Gladys Richards:

Thank you for your letter dated 14 January 2010.

I can confirm that I am more than willing to supply the Police with any documentation I hold which will assist them with their investigation. However, as I am sure you will agree, it would not be proper for me to intervene in their investigation in the way you suggest.

By all means bring these matters to the attention of the Police yourselves on behalf of your client and I will respond positively to any request from them for documents in my possession that they do not already have.

Yours faithfully

David C Horsley
