Dear Sirs

Mrs Gladys Richards:

I refer to your letter of 25 September 2009.

It might be that the further police investigation may obviate the need to proceed further with the Inquest. At the moment, all we can do is wait for the police to conclude their current work.

Yours faithfully

David C Horsley

Dear Sirs

Re: Gladys Richards (Deceased)

Thank you for your letter dated 21 September 2009.

We note the position in light of the further investigation by the Police. In the circumstances, we would be grateful if in due course you could notify us when you feel it would be appropriate to reopen your investigation.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Yours faithfully
