Well then I think this confirms our approach (sorry just read this after I sent email just sent.....)
 I wont bother d/w Graeme as Dr Lord is included in support.
 Regards
 P

It is our usual practice to give support to staff who have left when they attend Inquests on our behalf. I think its only fair.

Dear Both

You may remember that one of our consultants Dr Althea Lord has emigrated to New Zealand. I've been in contact with her to alert her to the inquest - she had already heard through her consultant network.

Althea has asked if the Trust is arranging legal assistance for attending the inquest and if so would this extend to her. I was able to confirm that legal assistance was being arranged (as per pour discussion with H PCT etc last week) - but would need to check if this extends to her as she is no longer an employee.

What do you think? I'd like to think we could include her, but you may have good reasons to say no.

I have advised that she should get he MDU on board too.

Best wishes

Lesley
