By way of update, I emailed the Coroner last week (he is just back from leave) to ask if he had any more details and if he really thought that the Inquests would take place this Autumn. I have not heard back from him yet. I had planned to arrange a meeting once I heard from him, but happy that you are arranging it now Lesley. I think we will need Jacquie Haines, Trust solicitor, to attend as well as she will be advising us and she or one or her colleagues may be representing us at the Inquests, if the families are legally represented. Also may be helpful if Elaine Williams attends as she handled the cases when they were the subject of Police investigation. She has all the files on the cases I believe.
