Dear Code ARe: Code A

Further to my letter of 14 March 2000 I now have the medical records, which are enclosed herewith for disclosure. I have had a further letter from Code B Code B (enclosed) chasing for the records, but unfortunately Code A has had appointments and I have been unable to get hold of them earlier.

I have just realised that this Code A was the subject of a complaint about Code A injury back in September last year and I enclose a copy of the complaints correspondence and Code A the Security Manager, is obtaining a statement from Code A the Security Guard involved and informs me that the two Porters, who were also present, also still work for the Trust, which will be helpful. While in Hospital Code A had two other accidents for which I enclose incident reports and I am currently chasing up the whereabouts of the incident report relating to the allegations, which I will let you have as soon as possible.

Code A has another Outpatient appointment on 6 April 2000 and so I would be grateful if you could arrange for the return of the records to me by that date.

Yours sincerely

Code A*TRUST SECRETARIAT MANAGER
