Professor Baker,

I quite obviously had not intended to forward on to you DH Solicitors' early thoughts on publication/release to the police etc. This was a note sent to Mike in confidence and I hadn't realised it was attached to Mike's e-mail.

There is nothing in there that you would not expect to see in an e-mail from a solicitor to its client but could I ask that you please delete that e-mail. I can only put this down to tiredness after yet another long day.

Apologies and many thanks

I attach Gill's advice for information only at this stage. You will see that we do not have a straightforward answer. We will consider the options with Gill and I will put advice up early next week. In the meantime, grateful if you could reassure Prof B that we are considering what to do next and will be in touch soon (hopefully by the middle/end of next week)

Regards

Mike
