Richard,

Apologies for not getting back to you sooner on this. I have been in discussion with Mike Evans, DH Solicitors and Sir Liam. We are close to finalising a letter from Sir Liam to Steve Watts of the Hampshire Constabulary which will say that we are happy to share the report with the police, subject to assurances from him that it will remain confidential.

I will copy this letter to you tomorrow.

Many thanks

Lee

Do you have any guidance from the solicitors yet on the question of releasing the report to the police? I would be grateful if you could advise when it may be possible to let the police know whether the solicitors have reached a view.

Thanks

Richard Baker
