Dear Professor Baker,

Many thanks for your time and effort. I will review the documents and transpose them onto a statement which can be used in a court of law if required. I will be in touch shortly.

Kind regards

Dear Mr Tenison

I attach a draft statement for your comments. A CV is also attached, in case this is helpful.

Dear Professor Baker,

Many thanks for your reply. I will in fact be away in Edinburgh for a long weekend returning on Tuesday 24th August. If it would be acceptable to you perhaps I could contact you then. This would hopefully give you a few extra days in what I know is an extremely busy schedule.

Many thanks for all your help to date.

Kind regards

Dear Mr Tenison

Would it be acceptable to have this with you by the end of the week? I have had a flurry of deadline to deal with recently, and apologise for the delay.

Prof Baker,

Have you been able to advance this matter. I appreciate how busy you are but I would be grateful if you could indicate some time scale over the next few days.

Kind regards

Anthony Tenison

Dear Mr Tenison

Thanks for the message. I will organise the draft document, although it may take a couple of weeks because of outstanding commitments. I hope this is satisfactory.

Subject: Statement

Dear Professor Baker,

Further to our telephone call yesterday, the basis of your statement would need to include the following;

- 1) A full list of your relevant qualifications and experience to date.
- 2) The reason you prepared the report and the terms of reference.
- 3) When it was prepared and what data was used.
- 4) Who else was involved in providing information that went directly into the report and specifically what that information was.

As I have previously said, I will ask you to produce a copy of your report in its entirety. Although some duplication is unavoidable I hope this will reduce it to a large extent.

Although there is no particular rush, if you can e mail me a word document that covers points 1-4 I will be able to prepare a draft statement for your consideration.

Kind regards
