Liz
 This is the verdict for the final one of the GWMH Inquests linked to Jane Barton and allegations of morphine overdoses. We haven't really been involved with this one but could you cut and paste the verdict to the tracker in any event just as an audit trail.

Thanks

Louisa

Narrative Verdict for Gladys Mabel RICHARDS

Inquest held 9th April 2013

1. Gladys Mabel Richards died at Gosport War Memorial Hospital at 21.20 hours on the 21st August 1998

2. Mrs Richards' death was due to Bronchopneumonia; factors contributing more than insignificantly to her death from Bronchopneumonia were -
 - Accidental falls which she sustained at Glen Heathers Nursing Home, Lee On The Solent, on the 29th July 1998 and at Gosport War Memorial Hospital on the 13th August 1998
 - Procedures undertaken at Haslar Hospital, Gosport, to treat the injuries she suffered as a result of those falls
 - Her immobility subsequent to these procedures
 - Medication administered to her at Gosport War Memorial Hospital for the control of her pain and agitation
 - Her old age, frailty and end stage dementia

David C. Horsley,
HM Coroner for Portsmouth and South East Hampshire.
